Performance Development System

For members of the BCIT Faculty and Staff Association

INFORMATION FOR INSTRUCTORS

As part of the FSA Performance Development System (PDS) for faculty, enclosed are your student surveys and detailed report. You are reminded to retain the report and the original completed surveys for four years as per the FSA collective agreement.

Detailed class reports (including written comments) are kept in confidence and are only distributed to the Instructor (as per the FSA Collective Agreement, Article 13). Manager summary reports are sent to the Associate Dean's office and distributed to the appropriate program heads/coordinators and do not include student comments.

Please note, surveys that are completed in ink or with pencil lead that is too light are excluded from all statistical analysis.

Better for Instructors. Better for Students...

Instructional questionnaires are going online

BCIT has a new online system for instructional feedback. Designed for the automation and administration of instructional evaluations, Instructional Assessments Online is highly secure and increases accessibility, flexibility and confidentiality for students and instructors. The new system offers the opportunity for higher-quality feedback to support faculty in their teaching and to enhance the student learning experience. In short, it reflects the BCIT commitment to teaching excellence.
