

Link Budgets

Exercise 1: Which of the quantities above will be in dBm and which will be in dB?

Exercise 2: Classify the likely origin for each of the values. For example, a physical constant, a system specification, a value chosen by the system designer or a value computed from other lines. Write the equation for each of the computed values in terms of the values of other lines.